

Physical Education – LEARNING TARGETS & “I Can” Statements

Grade 3

Learning Target: Refines, combines, and varies motor skills.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can jump vertically and land safely. • I can throw overhand using mature form. • I can use my eyes to track a fly ball. • I can strike an object using feet, hands, or implement to a target. • I can balance and demonstrate locomotor and non-locomotor skills in practice situation. • I can balance with control on a variety of objects. • I can perform a combination of movement, sports, or leisure skills. • I can create a rhythmic sequence. • I can throw a ball overhand and hit a moving target.
Learning Target: Develops a cognitive understanding of a skill so as to improve performance.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can explain that warm-up prepares the body for physical activity. • I can locate heart rate to monitor exercise intensity. • I can identify key elements of a skill being taught. • I can demonstrate the necessity of transferring weight in a skill. • I can participate in games and activities that use academic and health skills to enhance learning; for example, math, reading, nutrition, etc.
Learning Target: Develops the ability to transfer complex motor skills they have learned into new skills/games.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can recognize the critical elements of a skill demonstrated by a fellow student. • I can correct my movement errors when given corrective feedback by my teacher. • I can design a new game incorporating at least one motor skill. • I can explain how appropriate practice improves performance.
Learning Target: Regularly participates in activities that provide enjoyment and health benefits.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can identify physical and physiological benefits that result from long-term participation in physical activity. • I can participate in moderate to vigorous physical activity outside of physical education class on a regular basis. • I can participate in structured and purposeful activity. • I can use a pedometer to count the number of steps taken or the distance traveled. • I can maintain a physical activity log. • I can identify one personal movement goal for use outside of physical education class. • I can identify one personal fitness goal to improve personal fitness.

Grade 3

Learning Target: Develops healthy habits that address the various components of physical fitness.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can select an activity that develop and maintain each component of physical fitness. • I can recognize that exercising improve my fitness level. • I can identify one muscle for each physical fitness test used. • I can identify and describe what two fitness components measure and give one benefit for each component (such as Fitness Gram) used. • I can maintain my target heart rate for a specific length of time during an aerobic activity. • I can meet my health-related (age & gender) fitness standards. • I can identify my strength based upon the results of physical fitness testing and set goals to show improvement in at least one fitness test.
Learning Target: Applies safe practices, adherence to rules, and procedures, etiquette, cooperation and team work, ethical behavior, and positive social interaction.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can accept the teacher’s decision regarding a personal rule infraction without blaming others. • I can assess my behavior. • I can demonstrate safe control of my body and the equipment I am using. • I can follow class, activity, or game rules. • I can cooperate with all class members by taking turns, and share equipment. • I can participate in a variety of team building activities. • I can work productively with a partner to improve my performance. • I can respect activity choices of my peers. • I can teach an activity or a skill to my classmates. • I can respect my peers during class discussion. • I can participate in low-level challenges, team building, adventure, and cooperative activities that encourage working together to solve problems in a game or activity. • I can positively encourage other students and refrains from negative statement.
Learning Target: Demonstrates an awareness of the intrinsic values and benefits of participation in physical activity that provides meaning.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can identify positive feelings associated with participation in physical activities. • I can select and practice a skill on which improvement is needed. • I can develop a movement sequence that is interesting to me. • I can work independently, productively and demonstrate my willingness to challenge self. • I can explain how the importance of skill competency. • I can explain the benefits of physical activity and stress relieving outdoor pursuits. • I can interact with others by helping them with physical activity challenges. • I can choose to participate in a group physical activity.